Ken, You leave behind a legacy of love for those around you and, a love for the children you taught. Your smile and firm handshake were always there for others. You will be missed.

Kenny, you were a person to cherish. You had upmost integrity and when I think of you the two words, "HONEST and LOYAL" come to mind. You were a great husband, father and dear, loyal friend to all who knew you. How years flew bye and as we all grew we seen huge changes in you. You were a man of God and a man of your word. You were a best friend and a loyal Marine. I will always remember the bus 21 rides as a kid. You and Bobby making everyone laugh and making light over a situation. Watching you, your dad and Bill hunting over the years and the stories. You were a blessing to all whom lives you touched.Growing up together was a honor but to be your friend was blessing. You are loved and missed. Love you and may God Bless, Debbie and John Slater
