Leta was born in the Philippine Islands December 29th, 1939 to Cirila and Vicente Sarmiento. Her father was in the Philippine Scouts during WWII and survived the Bataan death march, but died several weeks later in a prison camp.

In 1958, as a high school junior Leta met and fell in love with her husband, Mel who was stationed at Clark Field. They married in 1959 in the Philippines, where their son, John was born. In 1960, Mel returned to the family farm in Susquehanna, PA with his young family. Over the next 17 years, Rosie, Jackie, Mandy, Tessy, and Daniel were born. Leta dedicated her life to nurturing her beloved and ever-growing family, finding her greatest joy in their presence. Her Filipino dishes were the highlight of all of our gatherings. February 2024, we celebrated Mel and Leta's momentous 65th Wedding Anniversary in Florida.

Leta will be remembered for her unwavering love, her delicious cooking, and her devotion to family. She leaves behind a legacy of warmth, strength, and cherished memories that will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

“ Leta, Mel and their beautiful family were a joy to know. Our family, the Joivells, had many memorable visits in Hallstead & Pittston. Leta & Mel's children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, extended family and friends are their legacy which will never end. Sorry we are unable to travel to your mom's wake, but we are there in spirit, remembering all the joyful times we were together. Leta, your mother, was one of the most graceful, memorable ladies I have ever known in my life. Her memory will bring you peace and joy forever.

“ I am Gus nephew of beloved auntie, my mother Rebecca told many stories about her families, particularly late auntie, I still remember when I was still kid, they always address me " bodioc" auntie conching, and Auntie Virgie may their soul rest in Peace., it was in 90's when uncle and auntie visited me in my place, first time saw them both after so many years , introduce to them my family. I cried when I saw auntie coz I will not forget the gesture bestowed on me whenever they meet me in the streets, she always give me money, she said " nanung gagawan mu ot bengi na atchu kapa keng dalam" she said what are you doing in the street its already dark. I loved auntie even we havent have communication , but i know she remembered me, Auntie I love you and uncle and all my cousins, God bless. May the soul of our beloved Auntie rest in Peace.
