ANASTASIA "DAISY" DONOHUE

93, formerly of Hallstead, PA, passed away on December 2, 2012 in New Hampshire. She has been under the care of her two daughters, Susan (Carmen) Chimento, NH and Sarah (Bob) Burke, NC for the last ten years. She is also survived by Terence Donohue, New Milford, PA; twelve grandchildren; 23 great grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her parents, Leonard and Juliana Graf; brothers, Leonard and William Graf; sister, Marie Graf; her husband, Richard Donohue; sons, Michael and Paul. Daisy was a seamstress and later employed as a postal clerk for 24 years. She also had a home business, Donohue's Ceramics. Daisy was very concerned for her family, church, and community. Daisy spent countless hours with her grandchildren and had a major impact on their lives. Daisy was a long time active member of St. Lawrence Parish, St. Lawrence Altar and Rosary Society, and Knights of Columbus Auxiliary, as well as serving as church lector, even after her recovery from a stroke. Early on she was active as a Girl Scout leader and also in the Hallstead PTA. She was a member of the Hallstead Woman's Club, the Hallstead/Great Bend Civic Club, and the American Legion Auxiliary. She was a founder of Project Sunshine, which provided for needy families at Christmas time as well as the elderly and shut ins. She also organized Fifty-Five and Older, an advocacy group for senior citizens. Funeral services will be held at the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Inc., Hallstead, PA on Saturday, December 15, 2012 at 9:30
