“ Angel,
I remember a little baby in a playpen the first time I met you. I watched you grow into a beautiful woman. I remember you as a kind, loving , thoughtful and awesome person. I remember hanging out with you and your Mom and laughing until our sides hurt. I remember how good you were to your Mom. I will ALWAYS remember your laugh and the fun we had together. Sleep in love and peace in God's arms until we meet again.

“ I worked with Angela and our every discussion was shopping and food. She would always compliment my clothes that would lead to a lengthy shopping discussion of who had what sales and then that would lead into what I was eating that she wanted. My last words to Angela was teasing her about eating all the candy out the candy jar, she laughed and said her famous words "I know right". Rest easy my sister and shop on eating all the candy you want. You will be missed dearly...

“ Angela, you were such a pleasure to spend time with. Your upbeat attitude was always present. You would beam when talking about your nieces and the fun times you had with them... You would keep me posted on the little treasure you picked up for them on your trips to Boscov's :) Any interaction I had with you it was evident how large your heart was and how much your Family meant to you. Your energy will be missed, Rest easy sweet Angela.

“ Angela not only was my co-worker she was my friend. I spend many days talking with her about her love of family and her dear friend Laura. Angela has a heart of gold and would give anyone the shirt off her back. My heart is broken and I will miss our daily lunches together. Prayers to all that had the chance to know her, she was truly a special person.
