Anna Lou M. Kays

NEW MILFORD, Pa. — Anna Lou M. Kays, 89, formerly of Stillwater, was reunited with her beloved husband of 43 years, Walter, on March 27.

Walter predeceased her in 1990.

Anna Lou is survived by two children, Ronald and Linda Kays, and Robin Wiseman and Tim Feeley; seven grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; a great-great-grandchild; a brother, Edwin and Shirley Nelson Jr.; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was also predeceased by a grandson, Ryan McConachy, and her sister, Janette Evans.

Anna Lou was a devoted employee of Newton Memorial Hospital for her entire career. In her younger years, she and Janette were known for their horseshoe throwing skills. Anna Lou treasured spending time caring for and riding her horses. In her later years she enjoyed knitting, playing games on her phone, and playing Scrabble, especially with her niece, Mary Ellen. She possessed an immense love for her family and adored her time with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

A memorial service will be held at noon, on Saturday, May 12, at the Harmony Hill Methodist Church, in Stillwater. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may take the form of a donation to Harmony Hill Methodist Church, 919 Fairview Lake Rd., Stillwater Township, NJ
