“ Tonya and family,

I have so many memories of mom mom they are all wonderful. I loved her cinnamon rolls and her ginger bread houses she made. I remember coming to your house for a few days and swimming in the pool and spending time with you all. One of the memories that sticks the most is us trying to cross country ski in the blizzard of 93 and mom mom telling us to be careful and making her hot chocolate when we came in. I have known you all for so many years. I love you all. R. I. P. Mom mom
