

Anna Roe

July 9, 1930 - April 10, 2024

Anna Roe, 93, of Endwell, NY and formerly of Susquehanna, PA was reunited in Heaven with her husband of 68 years, Donald on April 10, 2024. Donald predeceased her on April 11, 2018. She was also predeceased by her parents, Michael and Elizabeth Rebich; and a very dear sister, Helen Whitehead.

Anna is survived by her children, Mary Ellen (Robert) Steiner, Patricia Sweeney, Thomas (Kathy) Roe, and Jennifer (Barry) Gould; eleven grandchildren, Stephanie, Shannon, Michael, Bobby, Brittnee, Ashley, Alexander, Abigail, Adam, Nicholas, and Zachary; five great grandchildren; her siblings, Elizabeth Holowonitch, Marion Tresfon, Andy (Patty) Rebich, Joann Bower, Peggy (Jim) Humpres, Michael (Lynn) Rebich, and Kathy Burmeister; and numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family members. The family wishes to express their appreciation to her caregiver, Leslie Rivenburg for her devotion and compassion.

In her early years, Anna worked for Matis Lingerie in Susquehanna, PA. After moving to Hickory Grove, she tended to the family produce stand, selling sweet corn, various vegetables, and growing beautiful flowers. She was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. She enjoyed many years with Donald in Florida at their winter home. Anna was a hard worker and had a strong Christian faith.

“ Aunt Ann was the most sweetest and kindest lady I have ever met. All the Rebiches greeted me with open arms when I married into the family. Prayers for all family. Love everyone of the Rebiches. Aunt Ann will be dearly missed and loved.

Aunt Ann was the most sweetest and kindest Lady I have ever met as well. She helped raise me and housed my mother in her and Uncle Donald's 1 room school house. Ann was the best cook ever , and made cook books . She sang. She taught and encouraged us to sing a joyful song and to call birds. She knew animal sounds. I love her. She was a good example of a woman.
