“ Steve, Michael, and Jennifer, my deepest sympathies. Barbara and I didn't really connect until later in life, but she became one of my favorite cousins. It comforts me knowing that she is with Aunt Lucy, Uncle Eddie, and Bob. I know she missed them all. I really enjoyed our talks on the phone. I'll still be talking to her, and I know she will hear me.

“ I met Barb while patterning Diane. I would put Matt, my oldest son, in the play pen with Michael while we did our task. So in the ensuing 40 years we became “sisters”. We had many adventures and often laughed until we cried. Barb was beautiful inside and out. She will be with me always. She will be with all who love her always. My heart is with you Steve, Michael, and Jennifer.
