“ I feel so blessed that my loving husband, Mark, got to meet both Aunt Barb & Uncle Lynn on a short visit in February. Aunt Barb always had a smile on her face. She never met a stranger, everyone became a friend. Her talents were cooking some of the best food you've ever eaten, loving her husband Lynn, her kids, grandkids & great grandkids. She loved to go antiquing to see what treasures she could find.
It was a blessing having such a loving Aunt! She will be missed tremendously.
Love you Aunt Barb

“ Barb was a mom to anyone who stopped by her house to visit her children. And always invited anyone to enjoy her many delish dishes she was so well known for cooking. She will be missed by all who knew, and loved her.
