BETTY J. WALKER

Betty J. Walker, 97, of Hallstead, PA was called home to be with the Lord on January 27, 2025. She was predeceased by her husband of 50 years, Rev. Edward Walker in 2001; also by her sister, Beverly King; her brother, Floyd Mix Jr.

Betty is survived by her sons, Mark (Betty) Walker, Bruce (Sonja) Walker, and Paul (Sheryl) Walker; nine grandchildren; many great grandchildren and great great grandchildren; a sister, Jean Lewis; and many nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

Betty worked diligently alongside her husband in Pastoral Services in six full time pastorates and one interim pastorate over his career. She was a member of First Baptist Church, Hallstead. Betty volunteered with Blue Ridge's Grandparent program for 17 years. She enjoyed sewing, making cards, baking, and trying new recipes. She loved the Lord and strove to serve Him in her daily activities.

A private graveside service will be held in Rose Hill Cemetery with a memorial service in the spring. Arrangements entrusted to the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Inc. Should friends desire, expressions of sympathy may take the form of a donation to First Baptist Church, PO Box N, Hallstead, PA 18822.

“ I praise the Lord for the privilege of being Betty's pastor for about 8 years. She had a way of encouraging by her words and tone of voice which was unmistakably sincere. She was a Godly example to many. -- Pastor Lloyd Penberthy
