

Beverly F. Updyke

December 1, 1934 - February 11, 2022

Beverly Updyke, 87, of New Milford, PA passed away peacefully on February 11, 2022 after gathering her large and loving family around her one last time. She joins her beloved husband of 60 years, Howard Updyke, who passed away in 2015, and their reunion is surely a sweet one. Beverly grew up in Courtdale, PA with her family on the hill. She worked for a time, then followed Howard to Virginia when he was drafted into the Navy. They knew each other nearly their entire lives, and it didn't take long to decide they would build a life together. Beverly and Howard had four children and settled in New Milford, where Beverly was a homemaker and Howard joined the partnership Davidson, Buccasio and Updyke (now Davidson, Fox and Co.), a well respected accounting firm with multiple offices throughout New York. Beverly was a longtime member of the First United Methodist Church, New Milford, PA. She also dedicated many years to the Pratt Memorial Library and Friends of Susquehanna County. Beverly and Howard were fortunate to have travelled the whole world (except Australia, much to her chagrin), but were never happier than at their home with their family. Beverly was always busy preparing a meal for the family, working in the yard, taking care of the kids or grandkids, reading, or putting with something. She was an elegant, smart, feisty, fun, down to earth woman. She was a force. Her light in this world and in this family will be missed. Beverly is survived by her four children, Karen Franks, Howard and Audrey Updyke Jr., Scott and Elizabeth Updyke, and Kristin and Matthew Bossard; eleven grandchildren, Meaghan Franks, Jessica

“ My sweet cousin Bev. She was always filled with joy and only good things to say. Will always remember when she walked down the hill with her brother, Tommy, and me to go to Sunday School at Courtdale Methodist. Her wedding is another event etched in my memory. Howard in his Navy uniform and such a nice man. As a baby, Bev and her cousin Lois were my baby sitters. Wonderful Beverly lived her life as we all should - filled with love. Don Dare

*I spent a lot of time at the Updyke family home in my teenage years.
They treated me like a member of their family. Beverly Updyke had style and grace, kindness and class. The children she raised with her husband Howard are all wonderful people - a little of her greatness lives on in all of them.*
