

Carl A. Brewer

June 8, 1949 - September 3, 2014

Carl A. Brewer (06/08/1949 ~ 09/03/2014)

Carl A. Brewer, 65, of New Milford passed away peacefully with his family by his side on September 3, 2014. He is survived by his daughters, Lisa Wingate, Unadilla and Lorie Brewer, Endicott; his mother, Juanita Brewer, New Milford; his grandchildren, Jonathan and Samantha; sister, Sharon Chesko; brothers Wayne Brewer and Alan Brewer. He was predeceased by his wife, Dorothy Brewer and by his father, Claude Brewer.

Carl was lucky to have a job that he loved, spending over 30 years behind the wheel of a tractor and trailer. From his belt buckles to his cowboy boots, he was true to who he was. He loved camping, dancing and playing cards. Spending time with his family and friends always put a smile on his face. Most of all, he loved to read and could always be found with a book in his hands and a bowl of popcorn at his side.

Carl had a quick smile, an easy nature and a gentle soul. His kindness touched the lives of many. His passing leaves an empty space in the lives of those who loved him most.

“It's so much darker when a light goes out than it would have been if it had never shone.”

At Carl's request, a private service will be held at the convenience of the family. Arrangements are under the direction of the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Hallstead, PA. Memorial contributions can be made in Carl's memory to Hospice of the Sacred Heart, 207 Locust Street, Montrose, PA 18801 – proof that there truly are angels among us.

“ I remember him coming to our house when I was a young teenager...mom always made a huge tub of popcorn for him. I babysat Lisa and Lorie when they were small...and I remember him making the best fried eggs for breakfast....covered black with pepper. we rode bus 8 together as well....many fond memories for sure..I remember him square dancing at our wedding, and playing cards with my grandparents when he lived in their upstairs apartment....Prayers for the family and hugs to you all....Lally Hall Snell
