“ Desiree and I will never forget the countless times you took us in the wagon for rides, took us for walks in the field and rides on the bike we had to share. “ Charles, Charlie or Chuck, it was a great honor to have him as a part of my life! When I lived in Harford and worked with him he was a great friend. At times he seemed like an uncle or father figure! We hauled a lot of rock together it was an unforgettable time of my life! There was always a strange connection between Charlie and myself and that was he was born Nov. 18/29 and my father was born Nov.17/29 there was just a strangeness about it and how our paths crossed, hard to explain! He will be greatly missed, but the honorable soul will live on within me!
My sympathies go out to Lenore in this time of grief as well as to his family!
