loved the Fireplace Restaurant in

“ We have had the pleasure of knowing Claire for over 20 years, and she was a part of our family, a great lady that loved her family and friends, our heart aches for her Grandchildren as they have lost a wonderful Grandma, but they have been left with wonderful memories that they will have for the rest of their life.

“ About 20 years ago my family moved next door to Mrs. Ucci. We had a garden and we would take her sweet corn and tomatoes from it. That is how I got to know her. She was a very kind good lady. I went by her house this morning and her American flags were flying in the breeze, and candles burned bright in her windows. We will miss her!
