

Daniel M. Dorning

October 3, 1941 - January 16, 2018

Daniel M. Dorning passed away at home on Tuesday, January 16, 2018, surrounded by his loving family. He was an avid hunter, fisherman and outdoorsman who enjoyed spending time in the PA State Gamelands. As a skilled craftsman, he owned and operated Dan Dor Products for nearly 30 years. As a member of the US Army, Daniel served in Vietnam. Some of his favorite times included Sunday morning pancake breakfasts with his grandchildren, walking his dogs, and reading.

Daniel is survived by Catherine, his wife of 46 years, daughters Michelle and Cody Brown and Jennifer and Michael Kerilla, and grandchildren Thomas Frailey and fiancé Hailey Morris, Samantha Frailey, Jacob Brown and Mackenzie Brown. Also surviving are his brother Thomas and Carole Brienze and many sisters- and brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews.

He was predeceased by his father Daniel Dorning, stepfather Joseph Brienze, and mother Veronica Brienze.

Calling hours will be held Saturday, January 20, 2018 from 2-5pm at Tuttle-Weisley Funeral Home in Hallstead, PA. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Hospice of the Sacred Heart, 600 Baltimore Dr, Wilkes Barre, PA 18702.
