“ I grew up with David & Fran when they lived in Port Dickinson through the mid 60's to the 70's, high school years & graduation from CV. He was a great friend & solidified awesome memories of sandlot football behind the old elementary schools in Port Dick. Also many summer nights spent sleeping out under stars by the tree in the back yard with the local gang. David's contagious laughter had us all enjoying our times spent with him. You will be missed David & may you rest in peace. My sincere sympathy to the whole David Belveg Family & know you are in my prayers. Your Colorado friend

“ David was one of the kindest people I knew. Long talks and walks as teenagers. I will always remember that goofy laugh and the joy he brought to those he loved. Say hello to Woody for me David. Bless his family during this time of sorrow.
