

David A. Davis

August 17, 1958 - June 19, 2025

David A. “Diamond Dave” Davis, 66, of Hallstead, PA passed away peacefully on June 19, 2025 at home. Dave lived in Alabama until a year ago when he decided to return home. He was a truck driver until his retirement.

Dave was predeceased by his parents, John Davis and Margaret Birtch; and two brothers, James and Gary Davis.

He is survived by his brothers, John Davis, Hallstead, PA, Randy Barnhart, Hallstead, PA; sisters, Cheryl Barnhart, Hallstead, PA, and Wendy (Bob) Mastenbrook, Painted Post, NY; and several nieces and nephews, including his favorite Bridget Kelly, Rochester, NY, who took great care of him. He also leaves behind his best friends, Jim and Kay Phillips in Alabama.

Dave was an avid NASCAR fan and Alabama football. Dave lived life to the fullest, was the funniest one in the room and enjoyed sharing his laughter with those around him. He was decisive, committed, and loyal to his family and friends.

At his request there will be no public services. There will be a Celebration of his life at a later date. “ROLL TIDE!!”

“ David was a very sweet man. I remember him always being around several years ago in Alabama when everyone would have the NASCAR race parties. He was always kind and always a very funny guy. I'm sorry to hear about his passing. He was my Popa Jim and Kay's very best friend, also a good friend to my stepdad Chuck as well.

“ 9 years ago I started hanging out at the Pratt pub. I then had the pleasure of meeting a bunch of great people. It just so happened Super Dave was one of the first. It doesn't matter if I was having a bad day he always made me smile. I could go on and on but to make a long story short Dave was greatness beyond. We will all miss him so very much. He made going to the pub well worth it.
