“ I had just met you at Theresa's with her mom. The short visit however felt like we'd been friends a very long time. You will be missed my friend.

“ I have so many memories with Uncle David. He redid my bedroom after the fire in our house and he built me this really cool closet. When I was a teen, he paid me to wrap Christmas presents he bought for family members because he knew I loved wrapping them (I would have done it for free but $30 to 15yrs old was a lot of money). He took care of me when my mom & dad were in Florida and grounded me because Jill and I went to the playground to swing in the rain after he told us we couldn't. He was so mad at us for not listening to him. He yelled at us and I told him that he was mean. He didn't want us to get sick. He was a big burly guy, as a kid I was kind of scared to make him mad but he was also a big teddy bear too. And he made the best meatballs. I love you, Uncle David.

“ Uncle Dave, I am heartbroken, and words cannot express my sadness. I will always cherish the special bond we had. I know I could always count on you when I needed it the most. I will miss you dearly, but am comforted knowing that you are now at peace. Rest easy, and hug grandma, grandpa , and my dad for me. Love you!

Rest easy, and hug grandma, grandpa, and my dad for me. Love you!* ”
