“ Reading this has really made it real and realizing what an amazing great aunt she was, I will always remember you as you always reminded me how awful I was a little girl. That I painted your refrigerator with red nail polish and ran and hid and swore I didn't do it. I really wasn't that awful i swear i didnt do it :)
Last time I saw you was at aunt Bonnie's funeral and so glad I got to see you then, and hug you for the last time not knowing it would be. Love you aunt Doris and you will forever be in my heart. Your spirit maybe moved on with the lord but you are still here with all of us. You loved the lord with all your heart without a doubt I know your with the lord and onto a better place. Rip knowing you were loved by so many.

“ Doris was a God loving person who sacrificed a lot for those she loved. Her family was her joy. She was a very good friend to my parents and a good Grandma to her own Grandchildren and many who just had the privilege of calling her "Grandma" and I thank her for all three. You will be missed by many. Rest In Peace Doris, and enjoy heaven and seeing loved ones there!
