

Doris J. Pitcher

November 1, 1930 - April 14, 2022

Doris J. Pitcher, 91, of Hallstead, PA was called home to be with the Lord on April 14, 2022, following a brief illness. She was predeceased by her husband of more than 50 years, James; also by her sisters, Rose Lucille and Nancy; her niece, Linda; her great grandsons, Cody and Dewey; and son-in-law, Lee.

Doris is survived by her children, Pattie Deinhardt, Diane Allard, Byron (Sheila) Pitcher, and David Pitcher; grandchildren, Tammi (Melvin) Palmer, Jamie (Sheila) Deinhardt, Jenn (Dave) Launer, Tracie Deinhardt, Tim (Lori) Babcock, Lisa Tarsia, Teresa (Andy) Lindsey, Kim (Tim) Richardson, Lori Pitcher, Jamie Edwards, Bobby Fortin, and Julie (Nick) Hodge; 27 great grandchildren; 10 great great grandchildren.

Doris worked in many different jobs over the years, from waitressing, book binding at Vail Ballou, becoming self employed along with James selling and delivering hay, and raising their family. She was a talented seamstress, and just had pure joy in making her own clothing, as well as many other projects including choir robes, uniforms for the marching band color guard, and bridesmaids dresses. She had a passion for fishing. Doris made jewelry and mastered skills uncommon for women, like driving tractor trailers, and side by sides at 85 years old off roading. Doris knew how to celebrate and create memorable holidays for her family. She lived her life to the fullest, a true extrovert, and determined to enjoy her life. Doris treasured being a wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend.

At Doris' request, inurnment will be made at 2:30 pm on May 1, 2022 in Quimby Cemetery, Laceyville, PA, near her husband, her parents, and sisters. Then a Celebration of her Life will be held at the American Legion Post #357 on May 1, 2022 beginning at 4:30 pm.
