DOROTHY A. STORR CANFIELD

Dorothy A. Storr Canfield, 87 of New Milford, PA passed away on June 9, 2015. She was predeceased by her first husband of 22 years, Wayne R. Storr in 1969, her second husband of 36 years, Robert C. Canfield in 2012, her loving parents, Clyde and May Reed, and her siblings, Linford Reed, Erma Reed, Marjorie Reed, Ethel Harris and Robert Reed.

She is survived by her children and their spouses, Wayne and Tina Storr, Bill and Annette Storr, Richard and Elizabeth Storr, and Virginia and Richard Pease; eight grandchildren, James Storr, Kathy Storr Dibble, John Storr, Robert Storr, Jessica Pease McIntyre, Nathan Pease, Erin Storr-Ramsay, and Christopher Storr; great grandchildren, Elizabeth, Morgan, Alisenne, Elijah, and Aaron; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Dorothy was born and raised in West Scranton, PA. Her family owned and operated Reed's Flowers on West Gibson Street. She married Wayne and they moved to Great Bend to raise a family. After Wayne's unexpected death, she married Robert C. Canfield in 1976, and worked on his Dairy farm in South Montrose. They sold his farm and went into the hotel/bar business at the Warren Street Hotel in Tunkhannock. Years later they owned and operated a Just Country Antiques in Lenox, where they both enjoyed refinishing and selling antiques. After selling this business, they moved to New Milford, PA to be closer to family and retire.

Dorothy enjoyed oil painting, quilting, puzzles, baking, reading, gardening, and having tea with friends and family. Her door was always open. Dorothy's smile and kind words will greatly be missed by her family and everyone she met. The family wishes to sincerely thank the second floor nurses and staff of Forest City Nursing Home.

A funeral service will be held on Friday, June 12, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. at the Tuttle-Yeasley Funeral Home, Inc. Interment will be made in the New Milford Cemetery. Friends may call of Thursday from 2-4 and 7-9.

“ Remembering Dot with such fond memories. We met her when she and her first husband moved to Great Bend and her husband and my father car pooled to work together. She and Wayne began raising her family in Great Bend and I used to take each of the babies for a walk on nice summer days in their stroller to give mom a break. I then became a Babysitter for the family and enjoyed each and every one of the children and Loved the parents. Dot was a remarkable lady of many talents and a soft voice. My condolences go out to the family she was a great lady and will be missed by all. RIP DOT RIP!
