

Earl W. Phelps Jr.

February 28, 1978 - December 23, 2013

EARL W. PHELPS JR.

Earl W. Phelps, Jr., 35, of New Milford, PA passed on December 23, 2013. He is the son of Missie Phelps and Earl W. Phelps Sr.

Earl is also survived by his two daughter princesses, Cameron and Kennedy; his children's mother, Stephanie Gaskill; two brothers, Ronnie and Trish Phelps and Joe Phillips; a niece, Seadie; a nephew, Nathan; and many aunts, uncles, and cousins; and numerous friends. He was predeceased by his mentor and maternal grandfather, Sylvester Connors.

Earl referred to himself as "That Guy." He was a stone splitter in the quarry and jack of all trades, master of none. Earl lived life to the fullest. He instantly became friends with everyone he met. He enjoyed every moment spent with family and friends. He cherished time with his daughters. They were his joy and light of his life.

Friends may call from 2-4 p.m., Sunday, December 29, 2013 at the Tuttle-Yeasley Funeral Home, Inc. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made Earl Phelps, Jr. Memorial fund for Cameron and Kennedy Phelps, c/o Peoples Neighborhood Bank, P.O. Box A, Hallstead, PA 18822.

“ Hey man I miss you so much. I see your face everyday in my thoughts. I'm so sorry I couldn't keep the promise I made to you. I tried my hardest man but me and her just couldn't get it together. I will always be there for them if they let me and you know I love them like their my own. Man I wish you were here to talk like we used too. Except I was always your shoulder. I can't wait to see you again brother. You were always worried about me and wanted my approval but it was always me that looked up to you. Keep watching down on our beautiful girls and keep them safe please. I love you man I'll see you soon and you better have a Busch cold for me. Haha love you man

“ Earl was one of those friends I never really saw often but when we did, it's like we never missed a beat. Talkin bout old times, and good times. I remember as a kid playing manhunt with the Phelps boys, crashing on the floor of the house and getting puked on by their massive dog. Having my first smoke at the "hangout" over by the old medical center in new milford. And seeing Korn for the first time with Rob Zombie with Earl among many other shows since then. I even got my first tattoo with Earl. I have nothing but positive memories of you Earl, you a good man, a great friend and I'll miss you. Rock on in heaven bro \m/
