

Edith P. Raub

September 10, 1933 - June 30, 2022

EDITH P. RAUB

Edith P. Raub, 88, of Kirkwood, NY entered into rest on June 30, 2022. She was predeceased by her husband of 54 years, Glenn Raub Jr. in 2009; her children and a son-in-law, Delbert Lewis, Beth Raub (Russell “Skip”) Fauver, and Tim Raub; a grandson, Russell “Spike” Fauver; and siblings, Nettie Homsher, Harold “Mugs” Michaels, Wilhelmina Michaels, Romaine Schwebke. She is survived by her son, Floyd (Kelly) Raub; grandchildren, Jamie McCarthy, Lyn-Z (Terrance) King, Amber Ralston, Alisha Hayes, Georgia Raine Raub, Tonya (James) Lucke, Jennifer Fauver, Stacy (Paul) Leeming, Jeremiah (Jessie) Raub, and Shawn Lewis; a daughter-in-law, Beth Raub; and several nieces and nephews.

Edith began her career with the Great Bend Bag Factory and retired from Putnam Publishing. She was a Den Mother for Cub Scouts. Edith enjoyed, crocheting, quilting, and bird watching. Her happiest years were spent in North Carolina from 1999-2020, clamming with Glenn. She loved Blue Grass music and dancing. Edith had a quick, witty sense of humor.

At her request, there will be no public services. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Elizabeth Church Manor, 863 Front Street, Binghamton, NY 13905 in appreciation of the care she received.

Tribute Wall

CA

“ Dear family, please know you have our sympathy for the loss of Edie. God bless,
Chaplain Janet Abel and Elizabeth Church Manor

Chaplain Janet Abel - July 06, 2022 at 01:47 PM

“ I fondly remember working with Eddie as a waitress at the Eustacan Bar when Sonny tended bar there. she was the sweetest Lady. We didn't work there to long but we did have fun while we were, RIP EDDIE FLY HIGH

Patty Cobb Morris - July 02, 2022 at 10:08 AM

EL

“ EDIE was like family I spent several Christmas days with the family she treated my daughter like family as well always gave her birthday and Christmas presents I loved to see her when she visited she made a place for mom to stay when Nanci went to North Carolina EDIE will be remembered fondly and missed very much.

Elmer - July 01, 2022 at 11:23 PM