Kewpie is survived by her children, Ronnie and Barb Fisher, Connie and Jack Margets, Donnie and Susan Fisher, Lonnie and Lori Fisher, and Bonnie and Kenny Gumaer; grandchildren and great grandchildren, Ryan, Aubrey, Aliana, and Wren Fisher, Darci, Matt, Faith and Kinley Cottrell, Tiffany, Andrew, and Ivy Pavlik, Brad Fisher, Stephanie and Chris Brown, Nichole Gordon and Bob Finnerty, Cortney, Shawn, Hunter, and Remmington Colwell; a sister, Janice Brown; a brother, Clyde Stockholm; and many nieces and nephews.

The family wishes to express their appreciation to the staff of Barnes-Kasson SNF and her neighbors at Emerson Southgate Apartments for being so kind to our mom. Especially Helene for all of her help, so mom could stay in her apartment as long as she did.

Kewpie enjoyed knitting and playing BINGO with her neighbors. She was quiet, sincere, and a deeply caring individual. Kewpie served others whenever she could. Her door was always open and Sunday morning breakfast was her specialty. She was known for her always present smile. Kewpie had a strong faith and waited for the Lord to call her home.

“ Kewpie was such a sweet, kind soul and her passing leaves a void in the hearts of all who were lucky enough to have known her. I'm smiling at the thought of Kewpie already making breakfast for anyone who drops by to visit in her new home. You're missed Kewpie - a lot.

“ So sorry for the loss of your Mom. She was such a wonderful lady & will be missed by all who knew her. There is nothing to compare to the loss of a mother & the void it leaves behind. But she is no longer suffering but at peace with the Lord.

“ I want to extend my heartfelt sympathy to Kewpie's family. She and her husband were neighbors to my mom and dad Helen and Ralph Austin. Kewpie was always delivering a dish and Ronnie did odd jobs and mowed their lawn. They were both very caring people and good friends. God Bless them both. Barb Austin Hinkley.
