

Frances "Tommie" E. Johnson

January 4, 1925 - February 13, 2021

FRANCES E. "TOMMIE" JOHNSON

Frances E. Johnson, 96, of New Milford, PA was called home to be with the Lord on February 13 2021. She is survived by her husband of almost 71 years, Donald; also by her children, Daniel (Donna) Johnson, Kevin (Mary) Johnson, Laurie (Kevin) Weber; 15 grandchildren; 26 great grandchildren; a brother, Keith Thompson; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her son, Phil Johnson; three sisters, Florence Mae, Nat, and Nadine; and a brother, Bill.

Tommie graduated from Practical Bible Trainings School and Nursing School. She worked as a Registered Nurse at Binghamton General Hospital and then at Montrose General Hospital. She was a very active member of South New Milford Baptist Church. Tommie was a talented artist in paint and wrote beautiful poetry. She sewed quilts for the church. She had quite a sense of humor, and was known to pull some pranks on family members and the doctors she worked with. Her faith was the focus of her life and nearing the end, she was anticipating meeting her Savior Jesus Christ face to face. Services will be private and held at the family's convenience. Arrangements under the direction of the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Inc.

Cemetery Details

New Milford Cemetery

New Milford, PA

Events

Details are pending.

Tribute Wall

CR

“ I mostly remember Mrs Johnson coming to school for parents day in Elementary school in New Milford and especially 1st ,2nd,and 3rd grade ! And the while family at the Baptist church of New Milford, my condolences to the family and friends , I will always remember Mr And Mrs Johnson as great hometown people right along with their children ! I am a classmate of both Kevin and Lori , sending healing prayers and to Mr Johnson I know ur children and grandchildren will be there for u !!

Charles Ralston - February 17, 2021 at 08:55 PM

“ Garden Accent Stone - "Wherever a Beautiful Soul..." was purchased for the family of Frances "Tommie" E. Johnson.

February 17, 2021 at 07:20 PM

NP

“ Grandma, you are truly one of the best people I've ever known. I am so blessed to have had you in my life for so long. I was able to experience your loving and nurturing nature as a child, and fully appreciate your humor and wit as an adult. Your faith in God was so strong and should be a model for all. You lived according to His Word, and inspired others with your patience, dedication and love. You took care of me when I was sick and played so many games with us-you would absolutely wreck everyone at any word game we played! You would always cook our favorite "Grandma recipes" when we came to visit-I think of you every time I eat plunked chicken, and I'll never be able to make Blueberry Buckle as well as you did. When I was small, you would let me go through your recipe box and help you make cookies or cakes, and you were always so patient with me. You read us stories and didn't mind when I crawled all over the furniture. You made me laugh with your awesome sense of humor, and I always loved getting handwritten letters from you sharing updates and sometimes a funny limerick you came up with. I so enjoyed waking up in the mornings and coming out into the kitchen to hang out quietly with you, reading books and watching the birds. You were an amazing artist, and I will always treasure the bookmarks you made for us and the painting you created. I am so glad Alanna and Brad were able to know your strength, humor, patience and kindness. We are going to miss you so much, but I truly know you are in a better place. I love you and I will see you again.

Nicole Peters - February 16, 2021 at 05:19 PM

NP

“ Just an example of my grandmother's excellent wit-she sent me this copy of a letter and a limerick she gave to her cardiologist in 2017 (at age 92):

*"Dr. Galanakis,
I am reporting that as per your instructions, I have done no bungie jumping or snow boarding since being on Eliquis.
However, thank you for not prohibiting sky diving as well. Since there's a facility that offers it well within driving distance, why not? I must tell you, there's no other experience like it!*

See you at the cardioversion Oct. 12"

And her limerick that went with it:

*"When fibrillation makes us weak,
And leaking valves o'ertake us,
It's time to see, you will agree*

Good Dr. Galanakis

When PVCs quite oft appear,

And NSR forsakes us,

We are aware, no time to spare,

Get Dr. Galanakis

When angina disturbs our sleep,

Or dyspnea seems to wake us,

To fix our heart we do our part-

Call Dr. Galanakis

When bradycardia saps our strength,

And palpitations shake us,

That's when we know it's time to go

See Dr. Galanakis"

Nicole Peters - February 16, 2021 at 05:18 PM

RT

“ It’s hard to put one moment in time as a best Memory. Anyone who knew her, could build a library of best or most memorable moments. Growing up, vacation to the Johnson’s was the pinnacle of life for that year. She was loving, fun, affectionate, witty, smart as all can be, competitive, and very talented. She has carried that loving torch for as long as I can remember. My only regret is not getting to see her one more time. Not just for me, but for my dad as well. He is the only Thompson sibling left from that era. I’m thankful we still have Uncle Don and Uncle Bill with us. But it’s proof that this generation is fading fast. I have no doubt she is in a better place. Anyone who knew her, knew how much she loved reading, painting, puzzles, ... you name it. Losing her eyesight toward the end I’m sure was very difficult for her. So for that, I’m thankful she is no longer hindered. As well, I can only imagine the reunion she experienced when she crossed over. Grandpa and Grandma Thompson, Florence May, Pop and Grandma Johnson, Phil Johnson, Aunt Nat and Aunt Dino, Uncle Bill and Aunt Betty, and so many more whom she knew and loved. It is still hard to believe, but she lived a wonderful and fulfilling life. All I can do is pray for my cousins and Uncles, during this difficult time. I know I sure need them.

Robert Thompson - February 14, 2021 at 04:46 PM