“ Freddy I am going to miss our phone conversations. You always made me laugh, There wasn't one time that before we hung up you wouldn't say "Thanks for calling". I would hang up the phone laughing every time. Give Dad a hug for me, I'm going to miss you. I love you bro.

“ my condolences to cousin ann & family..

I remember when we lived in bayonne nj. I was working for domenico tours bus co. & was going home.. all of a sudden, who comes driving by & beeping his horn, my cousin fred.. at first I did not know it was my cousin. I thought it was my uncle fred. he was heading to the bus co to go home.. he gave me his address & said to me- anytime you want, stop over... one day I did. this was when cousin fred introduced me to his lovely wife ann..we all spoke & laughed.. that was my cousin fred, always.. a heart of gold.. one thing my cousin fred always spoke to me about, something I will never forget. he said to me, Frankie- your father Frank was like a father to me when I was a little boy.. he always took care of me when my father was driving a bus or even as a fire fighter.. to me, this sounds familier when I was a little boy, when my uncle fred & aunt joan took care of me, while my dad was working.. finally, a few years ago, on two different occasions, my wfe carol & I went to resorts casino in atlantic city. my cousin fred was our bus driver... we all will miss you very much !!

May You Now Rest In Peace. with all The Angels & Saints,

Through Christ, Our Lord,

Amen !!!

“ Many years ago a group of us (Ann's relatives from Maine) went on a trip to New York City with Ann and Fred. One day Fred drove us around the city, showing us the sites. He was a very good tour guide. I will always remember him, and send Ann and family my sympathy and prayers in this most difficult time. - Diana (sister-in-law)
