“ My condolences to all the Tuttle's and extended family.

Harold (aka HET for Harold Eugene Tuttle) was my best childhood friend. We built a hut behind the manse of the Presbyterian Church; We went camping together with the older boys (Charlie, Bob, and others); not because they wanted us "kids" but at the insistence of Harold's mother. Many other memories! You are truly missed.

“ I loved the summers at the lake and the visits at your home when we were growing up. I have many memories. You and Aunt Mary would let me play the organ and play on the stairs. Loved playing the ring toss game that was on the wall at the cottage. I love you both. I'm sad you are gone but grateful you are at peace and with Aunt Mary. Rosemary and Richie I am sorry for your loss.

“ I remember so many wonderful times at Tingley Lake growing up. I remember so vividly many wonderful meals surrounded by the family. Uncle Harold would open the box of ice cream differently than anyone I had ever seen. He would use a knife to cut slices off the end of the rectangle block, so he served these thin, but large slices of ice cream that covered the plate. I definitely had a larger portion than usually allowed when he cut it off. I was completely fascinated with the process he had for cutting ice cream and I watched him the entire time he did it. I have never seen anyone else cut ice cream like he did and I probably will never find someone else serving it that way either. He was one of a kind, quiet, precise, unique, and caring for his family was his priority.
