

Henry Edwin Jay Jr.

September 27, 1934 - March 29, 2018

HENRY EDWIN JAY, JR.

Henry Edwin Jay, Jr., 83, of Susquehanna, PA went home to be with the Lord on March 29, 2018 and was reunited with his wife and parents in heaven. His wife, Margaret predeceased him in September 2013.

Henry is survived by his children, Janice and Dennis Richmond, Dennis and Sandra Babcock, and Delores Brown; a sister, Lois and Dominic Allegrino; and numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. He was also predeceased by two children, Morris and Herbert; a grandson, Joey Babcock; a son-in-law, William Brown; and five other siblings.

Henry enjoyed the great outdoors, hunting and fishing. He worked for Andy Hubel on his farm and also at the Hallstead Foundry. Henry possessed a talent for seeing something and being able to sketch it on a blank sheet of paper, his favorites being cars, trucks, and tractors. In his younger years, Henry drove in stock car races and he never lost interest in the sport. He faithfully attended the races Fridays at Penn Can Speedway. He collected old model cars. Henry was a hard worker and would help anyone who needed it. He always had a good story to tell about his younger years.

At his request, there will be no public services. The family will hold a celebration of his life in the future. Inurnment with Margaret will be made in Gelatt Cemetery.
