“ Marty , Diane , Louise , my deepest condolences for your loss !! I have some great stories with ur Dad indeed and by the way you girls were yhe best sitters ever !! I know i was a prince ! When we would be sleigh riding or riding gocarts or what ever we would be doing on peck hill (sport hill) as we all called it ur dad would always give us a warning toot starting from down around Houllihans store and he didnt lay off the horn till he got to the railroad bridge , we all knew when the horn stopped u better be out of the way and off the road especially in the winter time and i mean double time and if george collman had not been up there to cinder the hill well u had to be there !i mean he had to make to the top of that hill to get to the driveway or atleast to the start of the dirt road ! He would of made a great stock car driver that i do know ! It didnt matter if it took him one time or ten times his car was going to the top if it was the last day on earth ! I can see him getting out of the car once he'd make it and he would do this two step i wish i could show u it was what i called the Mr Ebhardt peck hill strut ! He'd be like thats right whos the man ! U would think he would of got out all po'd and he may of been till he did the deal ! I had some good chats with both of ur parents ladies and all of u all will always be close to my heart as great neighbors and friends , bless u all !! I know this is a little late but ive been thinking of u all !! Charles
