“ Our condolences to Honey's family. I worked with Honey at Flying J and we quickly became friends. Her sense of humor and wit made the work hours more pleasant. Her trip to Harrisburg each holiday season to the craft fair brought back unique gifts that she so generously shared with others. I feel very fortunate to have known her.

“ I remember when I was about 5 or so. Mom and dad, carol and rosie went to the worlds fair. I stayed with Aunt Honey and uncle johnny, I have a picture of me in the yard playing. Aunt honey had a way of always just laughing with me and saying I love you. I loved her right back with all my heart. I pray you are looking down at us, and at peace with God and hand in hand with uncle johnny.

“ MY HEART ACHES... DURING OUR BRIEF SEASON TOGETHER... SHE TOLD ME HOW MUCH HER CHILDREN MEANT TO HER, HOW SHE SAW HERSELF AS A MOTHER AND HOW BAD THE FLOOD AFFECTED HER WHEN THEY LOST THEIR HOME. SHE SHARED MANY OF THE THINGS HER BROTHERS AND HER DID TO MY MOTHER GROWING UP. I WASN'T A VERY GOOD NEICE SHE WOULD SAY BUT MY HEART STILL ACHES.
