“ Our deepest sympathies, Kim and Brian. We saw your dad nearly every day, heading out or coming home from his walk to the Coffee Shop. He was always ready with a quick wave or a hello. We will miss seeing him. He was a wonderful neighbor. - Tommy and Leslee Thomas

He was such a quiet and gentle man. He had a great sense of humor too, a joy to know. We met him and Carol when we were young adults, raising our families and active at church together. Earth's loss is heaven's gain. Prayers for his family,
