May 23, 1943 - February 23, 2021

Rev. Dr. James C. Valentine, age 77, passed into glory on February 23, 2021. James was born on May 23, 1943, son of the late Morris J. and Beatrice M. (Very) Valentine. He was preceded in death by his brothers, Robert and John Valentine.

James graduated from Union College and Ohio Theological Seminary. He went on to earn his Doctorate of Ministry from Drew University.

His shining stars were his sons. James was a loving and devoted father to Clifford J. Valentine (Christine) of Dunmore, PA and Cory J. Valentine (Wendy) of Hallstead, PA.

James was adored by his 6 grandchildren, Isaac, Esther, Gayle, Elijah, Ella, and Asher Valentine. They will deeply miss their "Poppy."

“ Dear Vickie and family,
Bruce and I loved both you and Rev. Jim. When we first moved back to this area and were looking for a church to attend, you both made us feel like such a part of FFMC. He was absolutely a life saver for us when our eldest daughter developed leukemia and for 3 1/2 years we went to hell and back and almost lost her. He is a true disciple of God and always welcomed and made anyone he came into contact with feel "special". His love for the church and God always made us want to do more to bring people to God and the church. He will be sorely missed, but know he is looking down on all of us and watching over his family. Bless you! Vickie Franchak

“ My condolences, Mrs Valentine, Cliff and Cory. I have many fond memories of days spent with y'all at the lake house, particularly of the time my first fiancée and I took the rowboat out and my brother, Jesse, and Cory then caught up to us in a canoe and then broke out the waterguns.

“ My sincerest condolences regarding one of the finest men ever. Many wonderful memories, but my favorite goes back to my wedding day when he married my wife and I. On the news of his passing, I recalled that day. The kind words he spoke. His presence and strength. When I think of his role on this special day, I can't help but think of all the lives he touched and how much he enriched the world around him. He will be deeply missed.

“ Sending love and prayers. Vicki and Jim meant so much to the community in Newark Valley, to my grandparents Walter and Frieda Smith, mom Janet Bouton, and the rest of the crew. I shared grandfather's funeral service with Jim, he was so kind and generous. I loved his laugh and smile. His wisdom and zeal for the love of God in Christ were unmistakable. We, Boutons and Snyders send our love and prayers to all. The covid19 virus may keep us apart and take our loved ones, but it will never take the love we have from us. Blessings!

“ I got to know Rev.Valentine and his family when he was assigned to the New Millford U.M.C. when both his sons and my four children were teenagers. He was a righteous man, a good preacher, and a wonderful pastor. Years later he baptized one of my granddaughters. I've not seen him in a long while, but though he and Vicki were out of sight they have never been out of mind. I extend my heartfelt sympathies to his family. I shall buy my families a round of ice cream in his memory as I see each family.

“ Vicki and family, we will all miss this wonderful man! I remember before a worship meeting at UMCC when he told me on a specific Sunday that he knew why as a retired pastor he was as sitting in our congregation, he was needed and indeed he was! Loved my time with him! Thanks for sharing him with our community! Love, April and Michael
