Blessings to Jane's family. I adored Jane's wit; she lit up a room with her light-hearted conversation.

“ Jerry Zick: You and I worked together in Procurement Quality 671 longer ago than either of us care to remember. Saw your Mrs. Obit in the paper and if your Jerry, may I offer my condolences to you and your family. It was over 30 years ago but I recognized your name and where I knew you from. Loosing a life mate, confidant etc is tough but with family it helps a lot. God Bless, Pat Ulmen

“ Aww rest in God's eternal peace Janey.
I knew her from working with her at BI-LO.
She was an amazing and inspiring person.
She gifted me with some Betty Boop car mats!
Her humor and smiling energy were awesome.
I thought the world of her.
I wish her family comfort in this time of their loss.

“ Jerry, I am so sorry for your loss, as we also lost a wonderful, loving, and caring neighbor. The Drumm family will never forget Jane's phone calls just to tell us that the deer were out where we could see them, the offers of lemonade on hot days, and all the thoughtful gifts to our children for many occasions. She was a very sweet woman, and you both were and are the best neighbors we could ask for! Our deepest sympathies.
