“ God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be.
So he put his arms around you, and whispered “Come to Me”.
With tearful eyes we watched you, we watched you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands now rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.

“ My memory of Jason is so special and I know why he was a lot like my sister Eileen who would share with everyone, Jason always had a smile and a hug for everyone, cared for everyone and never forgot where he came from. He would give you all he had and asked for nothing in return. I know he is with his mom grandpa and grandma on both sides and we will met again, Love you Jason love will be given to your two little one, and we will help your family over the loss as my heart cries because your gone way to soon. I know how much many of us will miss you. And for all of your family yes even me my prayer will be that God will be especially close to all of us in the days ahead. Aunt Elizabeth and Uncle Ed will never forget you

“ Dear Jason,

I'm sorry but I'm struggling... angry, heartbroken, sorrow and asking God why...

I think about the scripture saying, God made us all in his image, he made you as his masterpiece. God put us all here to fulfill his plan and you finished yours way to soon. If I only knew; I would of hugged you a littler longer, I would of told you how much you meant to me and my children, and I would have taken the extra time to stare into you beautiful blue eyes to cherish my last moment with you.

You have been so much to my children; Kateri, David Paul and Nathaniel. They look up to you for all that you have taught them throughout the years; hunting, fishing, crawfishing, and your history stories filled with ventures. You taught them to be kids. Jason, if you only saw how their faces lit up when they would share the times they spent with you... you would know how much you meant to them.

I know you will be with us all in spirit and watching over your true love Amie and your gorgeous two babies. I just ask that you be a guiding spirit to my children while they fulfill their plan for God.

Lastly, I want to thank you Jason... Thank you for being in my life and letting me say JASON YASNOVITCH was apart of it. Thank you for being who you are to my kids and what memories you leave for them.

I choose to end with this thought... you are with your mother wrapped in her arms as you both rest in peace. No more pain, just peacefulness and unconditional happiness.

Jason, God Bless you,

*Love,
Your Aunt Bernadette*

“ Jason was all heart. He would instantly jump in a car to help... Whatever the situation. I will always remember and be forever grateful for his warm sunny smile... And company... on a sudden road trip to Scranton just a little over ten years ago. It is with deep profound regret that I say farewell to my "big" little cousin. His loss is felt deeply. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ I had only met Jason a few times in family settings. He amused and impressed me with his stories and knowledge of how things work. He was quick with a smile and a laugh and I am saddened by his passing. I send my condolences to Amie, Anya and Dimitri in this time of sorrow. We will be there for you as an extended family.
