

Jeanette Pagano

October 3, 1955 - January 11, 2024

On January 11th, 2024, Jeanette 'Nettie' F. Pagano, 68, of Hallstead PA formerly of NJ, left this mortal plane to be reunited with her loving husband, Joe. She is survived by her daughter, Jessika; 3 sons; 2 granddaughters; as well as a caring sister, a great aunt, and a myriad of cousins and extended family. She was retired for many years from the United States Post Office.

Jeanette had one major request for her obituary: Cause of death must be included. She felt that people needed to normalize talking about death and dying since we may not be immortal, but our memories of each other are. That, and she described herself as a "professional nosy person." So in honor of her, and her fellow nosy folks, Jeanette passed away due to several extreme medical issues caused by multiple strokes. Remember y'all, BE FAST. B for balance; loss of balance, headache or dizziness. E for eyes; blurred vision. F for face; facial drooping on one side. A for arms; arm or leg weakness. S for speech; speech difficulty. T for time; call 911 immediately if you're experiencing those symptoms. Jeanette was a big fan of teachable moments, and would like others to pass on what they learned from her.

Now let us move to the juicy stuff she also requested. Jeanette described herself as a "Jersey girl at heart," and yes, it is called pork roll. Jeanette is also survived by 3 grandcats; Crusty, Mister, and Willow. The funniest sound in the world to her was anyone or anything gagging. She was very proud that her outrageously loud laugh was passed on to her daughter. She was a huge fan of beanie babies, wolves, and Sam Elliot. She was such a big fan of Halloween, that she even decided to get married on the spooky day. Her last and final request was: have a nice steak dinner, medium, with a baked potato, in her honor. "No funeral casserole is ever going to beat a good steak."

At her request, there will be no public services. Memorial contributions may be made to the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Inc. P.O. Box 936, Hallstead, PA 18822 to assist with her final expenses.
