December 16, 1959 - November 25, 2021

JED WOODRUFF

Jed Woodruff, 61, of Conklin, NY died peacefully at his home on November 25, 2021, surrounded by his loving family.

Jed leaves behind his devoted wife of almost 20 years, Judy Lewis; his son, Sean (Tulsa) Fuller; granddaughter, Nevaeh Aldrich; sisters, Pam (Don) Conrad and Judy (Dick) Winslow; brothers, Jim (Donna) Woodruff, Tim (Caroline) Woodruff, Ted Woodruff (Karen Laurinaitis), Ned (Betty) Woodruff, Elwood (Suzanne) Brotzman; step daughter, Milissa (Ron Jr.) Long; step grandchildren, Koty Lewis, Austin Long, and Hannah Long; sisters-in-law, Alberta (Don) Clapper, Marie Barriger; brothers-in-law, Richard (Karen) Barriger, and Tom Jennings; many nieces and nephews; and his cherished companion dog, Charlie. He is the son of the late Ervin and June Kithcart Woodruff and was also predeceased by his sister, Debby Crumb; a step son, Gary Lewis Jr.; and a sister-in-law, Anne Jennings.

Jed worked at Dodge Markham in Conklin for over 30 years. He loved old cars, especially his Elcamino with which he won several trophies. Jed especially enjoyed hanging out at the auto shop of his brother and best friend, Ned Woodruff. His family will miss him.

At his request, there will be no public services. Arrangements entrusted to the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Inc.

“ There are so many memories of Jed my dad I figure this is a very special one to me and very heartfelt. Jed (my dad) and his granddaughter with his beloved elcamino and one of the tropies he won. My dad was a amazingman, and was a very loving man, he will always be loved and deeply missed by many.
