

Jerilynn R. Yeisley

June 6, 1942 - March 10, 2014

"Jeri," Jerilynn Hughes Yeisley, 71, of Bellefonte, PA passed peacefully on Monday evening in her own home.

Jeri was born in Scranton, PA, daughter of "Milt" Hamilton Hughes and Helen Anderson Hughes. She was a 1960 graduate of West Scranton High School and received her Associate's Degree from Keystone College in 1962. She worked at Northeastern National Bank in Scranton, Seattle First National Bank and the Pennsylvania State University. She also worked making a home for her family 23 times both in the United States and Great Britain.

In her earlier years, she enjoyed scuba and skin diving, skiing in Austria and painting in several mediums. She believed her life was "one long adventure." She loved her children and grandchildren and spending time with them in the summers at Loomis Lake.

Jeri was preceded in death by her husband, Carl Wheeler Yeisley, in April of 2011. She is survived by a brother, M. Donald Hughes of Sarasota, FL and three children, David Yeisley of Bellefonte, Tod and wife Khalen Yeisley of Dover, PA, and Wendy Blumenthal of Port Matilda, PA. Also surviving are six grandchildren: Ashley, Wyatt, Kelly, Kasey, Brittany and Beth.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, March 22 at 2:00 p.m. at the Tuttle-

Yeisley Funeral Home, 25 Susquehanna Ave., Hallstead, PA. Friends may call Friday, March 21 from 5 to 7 p.m.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Loomis Lake Association, Treasurer, 2 Gladiola Drive, Clarks Summit, PA 18411

“ To the family of Jeri, my folks, Charles & Doris Wiggins used to have a cottage at Loomis Lake and we shared a lot of happy times with your family. My name is Linda Wiggins Norconk (husband name James) and we stopped to see them many times. I remember the kids fishing in the lake and catching some really BIG fish. So sorry for your loss. She was a wonderful woman!

“ Wendy Yeisley Blumenthal, David & Tod Yeisley,

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I am sincerely sorry for the loss of your Mom. Someone so special can never be forgotten. May God's Grace give you strength during this difficult time. I pray that your heart and soul will find peace and comfort during this difficult time. My deepest sympathy is with you.

With Love and Friendship.

*Jeri was always my BIG SISTER...lots of fun, lots of popcorn and great memories. Her run was all too short but she was surrounded by her families love. Singing at Dads piano..enjoying Mom's welsh cookies...the good memories stay forever.
