“ Jesse, I am saddened by the news of your passing. You were a man who made a formidable impression on my young life, not just with how hard you worked but with all the kindness and forbearance that was always part of your good nature. You remain one of the most memorable people I have ever met.

“ *Jess you were a honorable man with lots of knowledge and wisdom who I only got to know in the last 6 years. I found you to be very humble with every thing. Even when you had many visits to the hospital. Never complained. You always new you were in good care . As Debbie was always there for you. You had such courage. And you never gave up. “ Jesse, you will be deeply missed! I have many fond memories of how you were. How hard you worked and enjoyed your favorite cows. You were an intelligent person. You often smiled and had a gentle personality. You loved nature and bird watching and you knew dairy farming; plus was my mentor. You were proud of your family. You would mention how successful you all were! I had a deep love for you as you were my best friend. Fly high! Rest In Peace ... til we meet again.... With love Debi Marvin
