Joan and her husband were our next-door neighbors for years and we enjoyed getting to know them both. She had a soft spot for cats and would regularly invite ours into her home for treats, snuggles, and conversation. Needless to say, our cat had two homes to choose from and was spoiled in both! She would also stop by the driveway to chat on her way to town to get the mail or shop if she saw us out in the yard. She will be missed!
