“ I had Joe to my home for a 4th of July party a few years back. He was working crazy hours at the post office and missing his family back home. Jaime invited him to come relax and enjoy some good food and a beer or two. I remember him being so exhausted from work , he fell asleep in a lawn chair for a few hours. We let him enjoy his nap and much needed down time. Super nice guy who will be missed. Rest in peace Joe and may your family find peace in the days to come.

“ My deepest regrets to your family and close friends of Joe. I am heartbroken at the news. I worked with Joe in Binghamton and being from Queens, Joe and I had some good memories. How sense of humor will be missed. God Bless. Deacon Ron Maida Hallstead, Pa.
