“ Dear Joe,
What a good and generous man – who could find a more giving friend. You were such a blessing to my sister, Christine, and to our entire family during our Mother’s stay in the hospital and her eventual passing. You were right there with us, doing whatever you could to lighten our load. We didn’t get to share enough time with you, Joe, before God called you home.
Thank you for being there for Christine especially, for my brother, Ron, and for Tony and for me. Thank you for your service to our country. But you couldn’t stop there. You served and helped others whenever and wherever you saw a need. You will be missed, Joe, but not forgotten. God bless you.
