

Josephine J. Hook

July 22, 1923 - January 1, 2012

Josephine Hook

born July 22, 1923 to the late Patrick and Julia Gergle Tierney, passed away peacefully on January 1, 2012 at the Barnes-Kasson Skilled Nursing Facility, Susquehanna, PA. Josie was predeceased by a son Arthur Hook Jr., her brothers Charlie, Patrick and his wife Ruth, Richard Tierney, and brother-in-law, Carl Martin. Josie is survived by her loving husband of 66 years, Arthur Hook; a sister, Madeline Martin; a brother, Edward and Sally Tierney; sister-in-law, Beverly Tierney; a daughter, Bonita and Howard Buchanan; grandchildren, Wendy and Mark Morgan, Daniel and Danielle Buchanan; great grandchildren, Olivia, Gregory, Hillary, Vanessa, Emmalyn, and Benjamin; and several nieces, nephews, and cousins. Josie was a lifelong resident of Hallstead, PA and attended St. Lawrence Catholic Church and was a devoted Christian, wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She loved her family first and foremost, and then cooking, chocolate and genny cream ale, and the last three not, necessarily in that order. Josie touched our lives in a very special, unique way and will be greatly missed. The family wishes to extend a very grateful thank you to all the staff at S.N.F. and those residents who befriended her. A Funeral Mass will be celebrated at 11:00 a.m., Thursday, January 5, 2012 at St. Lawrence Catholic Church. Interment will be made in St. Lawrence Cemetery. Friends may call from 9-11 a.m., Thursday at the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, prior to the service. At 9:30 there will be a Rosary Vigil. In lieu of flowers those wishing to do so may make a memorial contribution to the Alzheimer's Association, 401 Hayes, Endicott, NY 13760.
