“Josh, I will miss you and your uncle Glen bickering all the time. But if you only knew how much he really loves you. He misses you already. I will also miss that smirky grin of yours and our yearly bet on the Giant-Cowboy game. We love you. You crossed that finish line way too soon.

“ Everyone knew Josh.....he was a good person and very well liked. I met him last summer when he came to my house to pick up a pit bull puppy from me...as we talked I found out about his love for dirt track racing, that he also went to Penn Can Speedway and that he was friends with my nephew...small world. He will be sadly missed...My Condolences to his wife, his sons, and the rest of his family and good friends.
