December 5, 1942 - March 15, 2020

JOYCE E. HALL

Joyce E. Hall, 77, of New Milford, PA was reunited with her husband of 52 years, Ronald Hall on March 15, 2020. Ron predeceased her in September 2015; by a son, Erik; and a sister, Barbara Wheeler.

Joyce is survived by a son, Brian Hall; two grandchildren, Nikolai Hall and Kassandra Hall; two great granddaughters, Blakely and Ava Baker; a woman Joyce considered a daughter, Lynn Hall; in-laws, Denny and Charlene Hall, Janice Hall and Vince, and Brad and Kim Hall; several nieces and nephews; close friends, Pat Clapper and Judy.

Joyce worked for an Insurance Company at one point in time. She had a heart for people, especially children, and has loved many foster children and babysat for children in her home. Joyce always supported Ron's activities, building the Castle for over 27 years and his involvement with Scouting. Joyce always had a smile on her face and was more concerned for others than her own well-being. Even through her own physical ailments, she remained independent. She desired to go to Cindy's Café with friends and family, so she could maintain important relationships and show her concern for their lives. Joyce was always willing to give everything she could to encourage others. She will be deeply missed.

The family will hold a private graveside service in the New Milford Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Inc., Hallstead, PA.

“Joyce had a gentle soul. I remember one time her and Ron gave our 4 -H club a tour of the castle and they thoroughly enjoyed it. She took me in during at sudden winter snow storm while I waited for my hubby to come from work as I got stuck on the hill in front of her home. Thanks for being you. Donna Testa

“So sorry for your loss. I have many fond memories of Joyce letting me stay with her when my parents would go on vacation and needed someone to watch over me. She was a lot of fun and through the years I missed the visits we used to make to New Milford. It's comforting to know that Joyce is now reunited with Ronnie and Erik. ❤️

“Joyce and I have been friends since first grade. She was always a care giver and did love the youngsters she cared for. We stayed in touch through the years and I brought my family to see the beautiful castle Ron built! She told me she still loved to go out but only when she felt up to it! I will miss you dear friend. Until we meet again<3 Godspeed!

“Joyce, I am so saddened to hear you have left us, but yet Happy, that now your back with your husband and son,, and all your family and freinds who passed on before that you have missed and have missed you, I can only imagine what a happy reunion your all having right now!

My earliest and fondest memory of you, was when you and Ron bought your property and we had a camp out there... we toasted marshmallows, and laughed, and I recall waking up in the middle of the night to a horrible noise, lol my introduction to a screech owl, I was scared to death but you just smiled and reassured me it was ok.. we were all up early the next day, and you had forgotten to pack any breakfast food , you just laughed and smiled and said, well we can eat cookies then, I have cookies.. my introduction to pecan sandies.. and I have loved them ever since.. you wanted to go to store but it wasn't open then , but we were all just fine., and for all these years I still recall your smile, you always smiled even in hardest of times you smiled. I recall the day we came down and you held Brian in your arms, he was finally yours...and then came Eric and you smiled more... And then your grandchildren, and the reunions at your home, the joy of seeing you and the rest our family ,and you smiled and laughed... You were a bright spot in so many lives, you will be missed. Our condolences to Joyces family, Brian, her grandkids and her close friends who were also family to her... God be with you all, till we meet again. <3

As I read these, I thought of the smile. I enjoyed that smile. I met Joyce through Pat, but looked forward to stopping at her home and apartment to sell Avon, it was usually a short visit. I know she loved people. I am sorry for your loss. Lori Young
