“ To Ken’s Family: I am so very sorry for your loss. I grew up just down the road from him and would babysit his kids now and then so he and Ann could have a night out. Over the last few years when he would come to the New Milford Coffee Shop, he would sometimes sit with my Mom (Evelyn Woolbaugh) and I. We would talk about old times and he would update us on the news on Old Route 11. Ken was a very kind and gentle man and he will be dearly missed.

“ My heart goes out to The Post family!
Ken was one of the nicest most fair gentleman I've ever known. He was concerned for the common good while he was supervisor.. I met him n enjoyed conversation n joking with Ken while I covered the supervisor meetings for the newspaper The residents/ taxpayers
