“ My heart breaks for you right now. Kevin was the first person to befriend Dan and I when we bought the house on Railroad St in 1987. We remained friends both in and out of work and we shared many laughs. The year I worked with a Cub Scout pack, Kevin came with his full fire gear so the boys could see, touch and learn what it was all about. I remember when he had it all on, he said to the boys, "If you see someone dressed like this, you run to them, they will save you". May God bless his beautiful heart and soul. If I am fortunate enough, I will see him again on the other side.

Missy, Dave & Bill, I remember when the lights were out @ Penguin, Kevin & Mark would sneak up on Sara & scare the shit out of her. Kevin was my go to guy when I needed advice on a project. Always helpful. He will be missed by so many people whose lives he affected. He was a good friend, husband and dad. He always had pride in his family.

“ Missy , and the boys
I was fotunate enough to have worked with Kevin for 28 years. He actually taught me the ropes at Penguin.... (Putnam Publishing at that time). How's that for a scary thought.
Kevin teaching me the ins and outs of the business at hand, the way he saw it. All those years we worked together I considered Kevin not only a co-worker but also a friend .
(Missy..... you as well). I am very sorry to hear of his passing, but I know he has left his mark in this world , and all of us who knew him are better off because of it.
