

Kevin B. Visavati

January 8, 1970 - January 1, 2026

Kevin B. "Vizz" Visavati, 55, of Hop Bottom, PA peacefully entered into rest at his home on January 1, 2026. He is survived by his beloved wife of 23 years, Tammie Johnson; his sister, Kathleen Visavati; his "brother by another mother" and best friend, Frank McIntyre; several nieces and nephews; and his great nieces and great nephews. He is predeceased by his parents, B. Benjamin and Theresa Visavati; his aunt, Barbara Orłowski; and numerous beloved pets.

Kevin was a brilliant tradesman. He has worked his entire life, starting with digging graves at 6 years old. Kevin built his own forge, worked in tree removal, oversaw several crews on different job sites simultaneously, could operate heavy equipment, and mowed the most challenging of terrain. Kevin was skilled in woodworking and could work on plumbing, but only if necessary. He could trouble shoot and problem solve for any tradesman issue, a real Jack of All Trades.

He wrestled in high school for Elk Lake School District and still holds records.

At his request, there will be no public services.

Tribute Wall

KS

“ Kevin also had 2 other brothers and a step whom was like our brother. They didn't talk often but still had other siblings. I remember 1 time he came and hung out with me. Talked about old memories. He had me laughing so hard my ribs hurt. He had come help me make perogies one yr and the 2 of them kept going at each other so I thru flour on him. He laughed so hard.gonna miss u little brudder..

kathy visavati- his sister - February 01 at 04:51 PM