

Lawrence Allen Painter, Sr.

December 20, 1954 - February 22, 2016

LAWRENCE ALLEN PAINTER, Sr.

Lawrence Allen Painter, 61, of Hallstead, PA was called home to be with the Lord on February 22, 2016 following an accident while repairing a car. He is survived by his long time companion and best friend, Rose Palmer.

Larry is also survived by seven children, James, Leland, Larry Jr., Kasandra, William, Matthew, and Robert; five grandchildren; two brothers, Mark and Wayne; two sisters, Sharon and Judy; and many nieces, nephews, close friends, and Rose's family.

Larry was a jack of all trades. He was a family man and known for several different sayings, "when I know I'm right, I say I'm right, unless you prove me wrong." "If the shoe fits, wear it." "Look in the mirror and ask yourself, Why?" He was determined to take care of Rose's needs, his children's needs, and his grandchildren's needs.

A funeral service will take place at 8:00 p.m., Friday, February 26, 2016, at the Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Inc., Hallstead, PA. Interment will be made in Vestal Hills Memorial Park at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday. Friends may call from 6-8 p.m., at the funeral home, prior to the service. Memorial contributions may take the form of a donation to Tuttle-Yeisley Funeral Home, Inc. P.O. Box 936, Hallstead, PA to help with the funeral expenses.

“ My best friend Kasandra loved her dad. He was an amazing man and would help anyone who needed. My dearest sympathies goes out to my best friend her two boys Rosie and the rest of the family. Rest In Peace Larry. Please watch over Kass and the rest of your family.

I love you Kass and I'm here of you need me.

“ I can't recall the last time I saw Larry. At best it was likely in the early 1990s when I was living on the Painter farm in the little house. Elizabeth and I are so sad about the passing of Larry and his Mom. Because of our difficult situation here in Colorado we cannot travel. I have not been back home since Elizabeth's stroke 4 years ago. Larry was exactly 3 months younger than I. We can't imagine your grief losing 2 family members like this. We are thinking about you and wishing you strength through these trying times.

“ My condolences to the Painter family, Larry was a great guy and a great friend. I have known Larry since the late 90's from Fleetpride in Binghamton NY. I helped and assisted Larry with parts for his trucks. He will be missed. May he fly high in the hands of Jesus our Lord and Savior.

“ I send my condolences, thoughts and prayers to all of Lawrence's family. Lawrence was my second cousin on my father's (Benjamin C. Painter's) side. I was sad and shocked to hear of his passing. May God comfort and keep you all in the palms of His hands.
Love, Cheryl A. (Painter) Muller <3

I wrote this poem on July 25, 1995.

"Reflections of Love"

*The flicker of firelight glowing warm and lovingly on your face;
Brings back all the memories of the past.
Precious memories of Love's first embrace;
Shining so brightly upon your face.
The reflection in your eyes speaks of True Love that will forever last.*

“ My last memory of my cousin Larry was when I was a kid and he was at our house visiting the family. I being a shy kid, had a hard time in getting to know him as he was a bit older than I was. He chased me around the family pool and threw me in. I'm sad that my last time seeing him as an adult was at his mom's funeral. We hugged and he was telling me his address as he wanted me to stop by and visit. May his family find peace and comfort in the memories of the great experiences they shared with him through the years.
