LISA RUTH DEYO

Lisa Ruth Deyo, 57, of New Milford, PA was called home to be with the Lord on June 6, 2025 at home surrounded by her loving family. She is the daughter of the late Elmer and Rae Fiske. She was also preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Rev. Russell and Ruth Matthews.

Lisa is survived by her children, Matthew (Gabrielle) Fiske, Brooke Richardson (Micah), Ashley Deyo, and Cassandra Deyo; seven adoring grandchildren, Nolan, Emery, Myla, Maeve, Lainey, Carter, and Julian; her siblings, Melissa (Jeff) Kelsey and Kevin Fiske; and several nieces and nephews.

More than anything, Lisa, cherished her role as a mother. Her children were the center of her world, and she nurtured them with unwavering love, patience, and strength. Her care was constant, her support unconditional, and her love, immeasurable.

She found peace and inspiration in nature---whether walking beneath the trees, listening to birdsong, or simply feeling the sun on her face. Animals brought her joy and comfort, and she had a gentle way with all living things. She had a deep appreciation for life's quiet moments. Lisa enjoyed art, writing, and music.

Lisa also had a deep love for Jesus Christ and found hope and an increase in her faith by hearing the testimonies of other believers.

Her legacy lives on in the hearts of her children and grandchildren, and all who were blessed to know her.

“ Working with Lisa in the early 90's at the Giant Market. My first glance at Lisa, I saw a kind face that was shy and reserved but I was determined to get her to laugh. Finally after of a week of pondering I just came up to her register which was always lane 1 or 2. A real busy moment I come up to pack her customers groceries, I say "Hold The Mayo, Lisa Deyo! A smile came across her face. And laughter too. And about 3 weeks ago when I started communicating with her through text, she came out and said "Hold the Mayo, Lisa Deyo". So in life you never know what just 5 words can change someone's life. And much tha ks to Lisa's family for sharing the pictures of Lisa. They were beautiful.
