

Louise A. Klim

August 20, 1944 - March 26, 2020

LOUISE A. KLIM

Louise A. Klim, 75, of Great Bend, PA was welcomed into the loving arms of her Savior on March 26, 2020. She is the daughter of the late Hugh and Hazel Singer. Louise was predeceased by a grandson, Richard Watt Jr.; siblings, Roger Singer, Susan Henry, and Betty Monaco.

Louise is survived by her three children, Carol (Lamar) Barnes, Richard (Denise) Klim, and Sharon (Chris) Gorick; seven grandchildren; and several great grandchildren; siblings, Mary Rockefeller, Lloyd (Jean) Singer, Clara Smith, Doris Henry, Lucy (Dale) Hanscom, Gerald Singer, Donald (Diane) Singer, Lois (Doug) Kulac, David Singer, Arthur Singer, Howard Singer, Martha Goff, Dawn Stallings, and Mark Singer; sister-in-law, Clara Singer; brother-in-law, Ronald Henry; and numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

Louise was an active member of the Franklin Hill Presbyterian Church and of the Hallstead Fire Company. She enjoyed family reunions, get togethers, BINGO, and collecting angels. Louise was an example of a Proverbs 31 woman. She loved her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and in-law children very much. Louise was proud of her family and all their accomplishments. "Fly high with the Angels mom, we love you and will miss you!"

A memorial service will be held at a later date. At her request, she will be placed with her parents and sister in West Cemetery, Brooklyn, PA.

“ I remeber when she would come up to the house and grab Grandma Henry and they would go play Bingo. They were known as double trouble everywhere they went.

“ I spent many hours with her and her family at Heart Lake. My brothers Bob & Howard and I would spend a lot of our Sundays at the lake and many family dinners with them. Betty and I were good friends and I feel bad because we lost touch and I never knew she passed away. Thoughts and prayers to the families.
